

Workshops and Courses

The OVWSG offers many courses and workshops in weaving, spinning, and dying, for very reasonable fees. Well-known instructors have provided us with invaluable knowledge and information over the years. The workshops have proven to be very popular, and many of our own members have the expertise to conduct many of the workshops offered.

Level: Beginner
Instructor: Judith Rygiel
Cost: $180.00 members, $220.00 non-members
Materials fee:TBA

Judith Rygiel

Judith Rygiel creates hand-painted and hand-woven silk scarves and stoles. She draws her inspiration from nature and from her research into 19th century textiles. A master weaver, textile historian and dye specialist, Judith hand-paints her warps to create complex colour arrangements. She has operated a weaving studio for more than thirty-five years, and has written and taught courses in weaving, spinning, dyeing and textile-history. Recently she curated an exhibition of early 20th century Acadian wedding textiles. Judith is an amazing teacher with a wealth of information.

Instructor: Jan Scott
Cost: $40 members, $50 non-members
Materials cost: $10

Jan Scott

Jan has a BA in Fine art and art history as well as 3 years of commercial art. She has a love of texture. She has a large collection of looms, and more recently she has added a couple of spinning wheels including a diminutive grate wheel! She has been teaching classes through the SCA and OVWSG on topics from silver point drawing to Warp weighted looms, but she really enjoys the simplicity of the inkle band loom. (its also more portable than a Viking loom!)

Colour Theory

Colour Theory and its Application to Textiles Part 1

Through lectures on colour theory and practical exercises the students will familiarize themselves with the many fascinating elements of colour as it applies to textiles.

NB part 2 will be offered in Fall 2010
